

Admissions Policy

Introduction

Applications are welcome from all sections of the community, and applicants will be taken if they meet the admissions criteria for the programme, they seek to enrol their son/daughter in.

Aims and objectives

QSI is an Islamic educational institution committed to provide essential knowledge to the Muslim community and wider society. We seek to educate and 'empower' people through the Qur'an. Our objective is to make the Qur'an and Islamic knowledge accessible to all age groups.

How parents can apply for their child to be admitted to our school

Parents who wish to enrol their child on any QSI programme will need to fill an application form and the institute will notify parents regarding if their application has been accepted or not.

Class Size

QSI limits all classes to a maximum of 12 students per class.

Admissions Fee:

The School Admission fee of £35.00 is a one-off payment to cover the administrative cost, interview, and other administrative procedures.
